

Town of Brownville, Fireworks Ordinance

Section 1. Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply in this Ordinance:

“Commercial fireworks” shall have the same meaning as “Fireworks” in 8 M.R.S.A. section 221-A as amended.

“Consumer fireworks” shall have the same meaning as in 8 M.R.S.A. section 221-A as amended.

“Display” shall mean an entertainment feature where the public or a private group is admitted or permitted to view the display or discharge of fireworks.

“Person” shall mean any individual, corporation, company, association, firm, partnership, society, or joint stock company.

Section 2. Use of Consumer and Commercial Fireworks Allowed.

The use of consumer and commercial fireworks within the Town of Brownville shall -be allowed, except as provided for in Sections 4 and 5 of this ordinance.

Section 3. Possession of Consumer and Commercial Fireworks Permitted.

The possession of consumer and commercial fireworks shall be permitted within the Town of Brownville by any person age 21 or older so long as such possession is in compliance with all applicable State and Federal laws.

Section 4. Consumer Fireworks Displays.

Consumer fireworks may not be discharged before 12 pm (noon) or after 10 pm (Eastern Standard Time). Fireworks may not be discharged within 100 yards of a building or residential dwelling without the permission of the owner or, in the owner’s absence, of an adult occupant of that building or dwelling authorized to act on behalf of the owner. Except on July 4th and December 31st, when displays may occur until midnight.

For purposes of this subsection, building means any residential, commercial, retail, educational, religious or farm structure that is designed to be occupied by people or domesticated animals or is being used to shelter machines or harvested crops.

Section 5. Commercial Fireworks Displays.

The display of commercial fireworks shall only be permitted within the Town of Brownville by a person who has been duly issued a fireworks display permit by the State of Maine pursuant to 8 M.R.S.A. section 227-A.
